

The Thinking Times

Formerly known as THE BOG SHEET

FRIDAY 22ND JULY 2022

Today we welcome Scouts and Leaders to our Satellite Camp!

This is a great opportunity for some of our younger Scottish members to get a flavour of what the Jamborette has to offer.

It also marks the start of our busy weekend with our Country Fair, Scouts Own, International Games and BBQ.

Hope everyone has a great time!

Opportunities

In ancient times, a king had a boulder placed on a roadway. Then he hid himself and watched to see if anyone would remove the huge rock. Some of the king's wealthiest merchants and courtiers came by and simply walked around it.

Many loudly blamed the king for not keeping the roads clear, but none did anything about getting the big stone out of the way. Then a peasant came along carrying a load of vegetables. On approaching the boulder, the peasant laid down his burden and tried to move the stone to the side of the road. After much pushing and straining, he finally succeeded. As the peasant picked up his load of vegetables, he noticed a purse lying in the road where the boulder had been. The purse contained many gold coins and a note from the king indicating that the gold was for the person who removed the boulder from the roadway.

The peasant learned what many others never understand. Every obstacle presents an opportunity to improve one's condition.

Don't judge each day by the harvest you reap, but by the seeds that you plant.

- Robert Louis Stevenson

Why are hiking shops so diverse?

Because they employ people from all walks of life.

Service to others is the rent you pay for your room on earth

- Mohammed Ali

Why don't you?...

Look out for someone sitting on their own and offer them your company.

If you seek peace, be still.

If you seek wisdom, be silent.

If you seek love, be yourself.

You have a gift of 86,400 seconds today.
How will you use them?
