

Blair Atholl Scout Jamborette

Risk Assessment

Location	Blair Atholl International Jamborette site	Activity	Creative arts
Team Leader	Logan Henderson	Staff present on Activity	Logan Henderson Rosie Gallagher Iris Calderwood
Nearest A&E	On site medical facilities Perth Royal Infirmary
Verbal instruction & Demo given to Scouts: Safety zone How to fit Helmet How to fit Harness	<input type="checkbox"/>	YES N/A N/A N/A
		Person in charge in the absence of Team Leader: Iris calderwood / Rosie gallaghan

Blair Atholl Scout Jamboree

Risk Assessment

The Hazard	Location of the Hazard	Who could be harmed?	Level of risk	Controls	Implementation/Monitoring
Slips, trips and falls (within activity area)	On site area	Activity staff and participants	LOW	Clear floor space with no tripping hazards. Any cables should be tidied away and off ground where possible. Any activity equipment that requires to be on floor should be placed accordingly and removed when finished with.	Activity staff - Checks will be done before the start of each activity and consistently throughout the activity. Checks will be for anything that could potentially be or become a hazard.
Explorers walking into other activities	On site area	Activity staff and participants	LOW	Explorers will be briefed at the start of the activity on where they can and cannot go to do drawings and create art. This includes other activities happening on site.	Leaders will roam the site and keep track of the groups at time intervals.
Cars on access road/ main drive	Access road and main drive to castle	Activity staff and participants, members of public	LOW	Explorers will be briefed at the start of the activity on where they can and cannot go to draw and create art. This includes explorers not being allowed to leave the site itself.	Leaders will roam the site and keep track of the groups at time intervals.
Moving objects (thrown)	On site area	Activity staff and participants	LOW	Explorers will be briefed at the start of the activity on where they can and cannot go to create art. This includes explorers being briefed about staying alert of surroundings.	Leaders will roam the site and keep track of the groups at time intervals.

Blair Atholl Scout Jamboree

Risk Assessment

Electrical shocks	On site area	Activity staff and participants	LOW	Electrical cables kept out of reach, away from moisture and only be accessed by activity staff. If any equipment requires to be charged or powered they should be done so by activity staff. Electrical equipment will be used during activity, safe working practises will be explained to participants.	Activity staff - Checks to be done at start and end of activity to make sure that any electrical outlets are covered or are secured out of reach of young people.
Environmental (activity area)	On site area	Activity staff and participants	LOW	Any fixtures or fittings that are part or not part of activity area to be checked to make sure are secured in place and safe.	Activity staff - Activity staff to check this at start of every day to ensure a safe working environment for young people and adults.
Environmental (out with activity area)	On site area	Activity staff and participants	LOW	When participants are around camp site during activity they will be briefed on safe practises	Activity staff - Activity staff will brief young people on areas of camp to not go to and also safe working practises with camera equipment.

Blair Atholl Scout Jamboree
Risk Assessment

I have read and understood this risk assessment: